

O-Ring - PTFE

A product of MFP Seals.

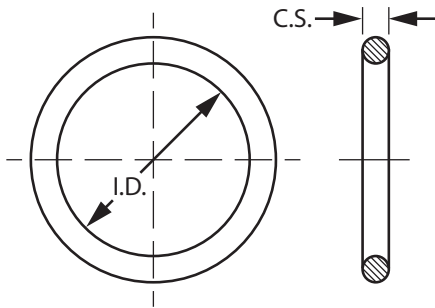

OR - PTFE

PTFE O-RINGS

Polytetrafluoroethylene (PTFE) O-Rings are chemically inert and used in applications where an elastomeric O-Ring would fail. As a rigid material, PTFE O-Rings can only be used in static applications. Common applications would be chemical, pharmaceutical & medical.

The standard compound for this seal is T1000.

MFP PART NUMBERS

OR-210T1000

SEAL TYPE | COMPOUND
AS568D DASH #

O-RINGS

Virgin PTFE O-Rings are available in standard AS568D sizes.

Please refer to the appropriate dash number from the charts on pages 41 to 44.

For more information on the available compounds or coatings, please contact your MFP Seals' Sales Representative.